

KINDA JOKE

„Melodic indie-rock-pop-funk that makes people dance, sing and cry“

A Spaniard, an Italian and a German met in Munich and formed a band... They are ‚Kinda Joke‘ and sound like Phil Collins after a few beers joining Coldplay to jam with Dave Grohl. They’ve written a bunch of songs about things you shouldn't tell mama.

Josep left Barcelona a few years ago and found himself leading his old band on vocals and guitar to the Emergenza Contest Bavarian Finals where he met Jon and his bass pushing with his former band to reach the German Finals. That encounter was the seed that grew into ‘Kinda Joke’, taking shape by adding experienced Sicilian drummer Luca into the project who was keeping the holy beat for several other bands in this old cold town.

Their music makes people dance, sing, think and cry at the same time and in no particular order, like a storm of emotion raging through melodic indie-rock-pop-funky rhythms that leave no one indifferent.

With a bunch of great songs making it into their first album, ‘Kinda Joke’ is ready to hit the stage 2023 to transform you with the power of their tunes and the almost forgotten ‘wtf I’ve just seen tonight’ experience, and that... that is not a joke.
